DIXON POLICE HONOR THREE OFFICERS WITH COMMENDATIONS

Dixon Police are honoring three officers as part of the renewed employee recognition program. The officers are being honored for their service at a ceremony during the City Council meeting on August 14, 2018.

Officer Dustin Siebert is being awarded the Department's Distinguished Service Citation. Officer Siebert was investigating a report of a man with a gun, and located the suspect in Hall Park. Upon seeing Officer Siebert, the suspect opened fire, resulting in an exchange of gunfire. Officer Siebert continued to chase the suspect, with other officers, and was able to locate and arrest the suspect without further incident.

Officer Christopher Rackley is being awarded a Chief's Letter of Commendation for his efforts in helping save the life of a stabbing victim. By rendering first aid, Office Rackley has been credited with sustaining the victim's life until medical personnel could arrive and provide advanced life support.

Officer Dylan Friend is being awarded a Chief's Letter of Commendation for his selection as the 2017 Dixon Police Officer of the Year. Officer Friend, who serves as a Field Training Officer and Firearms Instructor, was selected by his supervisors and peers in recognition of his dedication to duty and commitment to serving and protecting the people of Dixon.

The Dixon Police Department congratulates all the honorees for their service and commitment to serving our city.
